DR. JOHN M. CONRAD

John Conrad and his wife Joie reside in Eskdale, Utah, where they have been among the leadership of the House of Aaron community for many years. John is the veterinarian for House of Aaron, having earned his DVM from the University of California at Davis in 1976. In addition to his veterinary work, John is a teacher, writer, and shepherd of the Eskdale community, which has been in existence since 1955. Recently John described the purpose of House of Aaron by saying, "Our passion and mission is to assist in the gathering of Israel into a Holy Nation with Yeshua as King and the Torah (Word) as its constitution. Our focus is on Yeshua." Because of his knowledge and experience in building and maintaining a faith-based community, John was asked to address the First B'ney Yosef National Congress on the subject of community and national unity. Joie is an active intercessor, having served with such Christian organizations as Aglow International, and is a gifted worship dancer. John and Joie have six children and are grandparents of eight.

DR. IGLAHLIQ SUUQIINA – INDIGENOUS MESSENGERS INTERNATIONAL

Suuqiina was born in Nome, Alaska. He is of Inuit, Mi'Kmaq, English, Scottish, Irish, and French descent. He is the Grandson of Chief Suuqiina of King Island Alaska and his mother was a full-blood Inuit. When he was 7, he and his biological brother were adopted by the missionaries and moved to Minnesota, where they remained until he was 18. As a young adult in college, Suuqiina, was drawn to Native American studies, where he connected to his lost culture. For a few years, he traveled as a keyboard player with a rock band where he had a transformative experience with Yeshua that altered his life's path. He felt called to live as a preacher of the Word of God and served as a pastor for 21 years. Suuqiina returned to Alaska and reconnected to his native culture and people. He became involved in reconciliation work and multiculturalism, teaching on protocol and the restoration of indigenous instruments and values for the purpose of worship and following Yeshua. His work also enabled him to conduct reconciliation meetings in Far East Russia and in Brazil as well as a Gatekeeper for Grand Chief Lynda Prince and the 120 Drums, Suuqiina was privileged to travel to Israel and stand before the Knesset and Avram Berg with other Native American Chiefs and leaders. Through this Israel connection he met and married Qaumaniq and joined her as the North American Representative to a messianic ministry in Tel Aviv, which she had been serving at the time of their marriage. Suuqiina also participates as a featured artist many galleries and centers, including The Alaska Federation of Natives annual conference, and The Peabody Museum in Massachusetts. His membership includes: The Native American Indian Arts and Crafts Association, The Silver Hands-Made in Alaska Artist Association, The Oil Painters of America, and The Portrait Society.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell
together in unity!

Psalms 133:1

Ed Boring

Ed and Wendy Boring met while participating in a youth musical – “Show Me! Jesus!” – in Albuquerque, New Mexico, in 1972. When the summer musical season was over, they joined several other young people in founding a singing group called “Rebound.” In December 1973, they were married at Sandia Baptist Church, in Albuquerque. In 1977, Ed graduated from Fresno Pacific College with a pastoral degree. Since then, they have served the Lord together in many locations throughout the United States, and a few places overseas. They have been pastors, teachers, and worship leaders everywhere they have lived. In early 2007, while living in Monterey, California, Ed and Wendy began meeting with a small group of believers who called themselves “Har Adonai” (the mountain of the LORD). That is where they began their journey into Torah Awakening, Hebrew Roots, and the House of Ephraim. In 2017, they moved to Fresno, California.

Mark Webb

Mark and his wife Pollyanna reside in Arizona with their large extended multigenerational family. In 2007 Mark was affirmed as a congregational leader and is currently serving at Living Messiah Ministries. Mark is devoted to studying scripture to gain a greater understanding of Messiah, redemption and the gathering of the whole house of Israel. Mark is passionate about the study of Biblical Astronomy and enjoy researching the message of Messiah the heavens declare nightly.

Ezekiel 37:19

say to them, ‘Thus said
the Master יהוה,

“ See, I am taking the stick of Yoseph, which is in the hand of Ephrayim, and the
tribes of Yisrael,
his companions.
And I shall give
them unto him,
with the stick of Yehudah, and make them one
stick, and they shall be one in My hand.” ’

HANOCH YOUNG – KOL YEHUDAH

Hanoch Young is a renowned international speaker and author and one of Israel's most dynamic Tour Guides. Born and raised in the Bronx, New York, Hanoch was involved with many Jewish activist causes while living in the US. Since fulfilling his dream to move to Israel, he has expanded his work to focus upon Building Bridges among all lovers of Israel, worldwide.

Having completed the arduous requirements of Israel's Ministry of Tourism, he is a licensed Tour Guide, sharing the Israel that he loves so much with all who come to experience the life changing effects of actually being in Israel. Hanoch doesn't believe that people simply 'decide' to come to Israel, but rather, they are pulled to come; in effect, they are 'called' to come to Israel. His presentations and guiding enables you to 'live' the experience of being in Israel and absorbing all of its history and meaning. An Orthodox Jew, Hanoch actually specializes in guiding both Christian and other Non- Jewish Zionist groups throughout Israel.

Currently, he travels overseas several times per year to lecture to groups about Israel, Biblical prophecies and how to bless the Chosen Land. Are you one of those people who are inspired by the Prophets? Do you feel drawn to Israel? Feel a sense of kinship with the Jewish people? Did you ever feel that maybe YOU are supposed to be one of the 'Watchmen on the Walls?' And, have you ever wondered, WHY? Come hear Hanoch Young, direct from Israel share his unique perspective of events as they relate to the realities of the world, as well as the Bible and its prophecies. Find out why he yearned to live in the 'Chosen Land' as he always calls Israel.

Hanoch's exciting, dynamic style, combined with his background, openness and caring make him a unique messenger from Israel. Coming from Modi'in - the ancient home of the Maccabees, Hanoch is bringing his call for a Revolution for the Restoration to your town. Make sure to hear him speak; it's time to begin making history instead of just reading about it!
